

11/07/2003 Entry: "Kansas Senators vote to pull funding for Country of Origin Labeling and it PASSES!"

On November 13, the Senate voted 58-36 in favor of country-of-origin labeling. Thank you to everyone who worked the phones so hard over the past couple of days. The appropriations bill will now go to conference with the House of Representatives with a strong message from the Senate to remove the Bonilla language. Below is a list of how your senators voted.

Here is a link to the rollcall vote.

Thank you again to everyone!
